What can I do as a volunteer?

The World Masters Championship is a big event, which means that there are several areas to choose from. For example, you can work with IT, the media or as a host/ hostess and chauffeur. After a meeting with us, you will be assigned tasks. All volunteers will undergo a training that will be done by us in Göteborg.

You will also be able to choose between several different venues to work on, because the competition takes place at several locations.

Officials

To officials, we are seeking those who have previous experience of the aquatic disciplines Swimming, Diving, Synchronized Swimming, Water Polo and Open Water Swimming.

As an official, you should be able to work at least four spells of duty, one spell of duty is 4-6 hours long. If you work two spells of duty in one day you will also receive lunch. You should preferably be 18 years and older. In some officials assignments you can be 16 years and older but it require parental consent.

What do I get as a volunteer and official?

You will be a part of the world's largest swimming competition. In addition to being a part of the Championships, you will among other things, get education, clothes and lunch on the day you are an official or volunteer. The clothes package you will get includes T-shirt, pants, cap and backpack. As an official or volunteer you will have an accreditation for the Championships. Officials and volunteers accreditations have the same benefits and offer as the competitors. You will also receive a certificate of your participation.

The event will conclude with a party for the volunteers and officials.

When? Where?

Between July 27 – August 7, 2010 the World Masters Championships in aqua sports will be arranged in Göteborg, Mölndal och Borås. For the Championship we need 300 volunteers. Are you one of them? Volunteers are needed from July 24 until August 8 for among other things build up and dismantling of stands and venues. We will also need volunteers to work in the spring and summer.
